

Moustafa Basiony

Piscataway, NJ, USA/ Leuven, Belgium

Moustafa.basiony@outlook.com | +1-609-437-8720 | +32460971714

www.linkedin.com/in/moustafa-basiony

SUMMARY: MSc Sociology candidate and mixed-methods researcher with strong quantitative training and experience in policy-relevant social research. Skilled in survey research, regression analysis, data analysis in R, Stata, and SPSS, and mixed-methods research design. Research interests include social inequality, policymaking, migration and intergroup relations, inter-minority relations, intergroup contact, and discrimination. Experienced in translating complex quantitative and qualitative evidence into clear written outputs for academic and policy audiences.

Research Interests

- Migration and intergroup relations
- Inter-minority relations
- Intergroup contact and discrimination
- Education Policy
- Social Inequality
- Quantitative and mixed-method research

MANUSCRIPTS IN PREPARATION

- Basiony, M. (2026). The Sounds from Under the Stairs: Mahraganat, Class, and Cultural Legitimacy.
- Basiony, M. (2026). Acceptance of Ethnic and Religious Discrimination among Belgian Adolescents: The Role of Intergroup Contact, Migrant Background, and Discrimination Experiences.

PRESENTATIONS

- Exploring the Influential Socioeconomic Factors on Mental and Behavioral Problems Among Children and Adolescents in the United States during the COVID-19 Pandemic. Association for Psychological Science Annual Convention, San Francisco, CA, 2024.
- Panelist: Engaging Undergraduate Students in Research: From Cross-Discipline Programs to Published Article, Rutgers Active Learning Symposium, 2024.
- Examining the Relationship between Parental Sociodemographics and Children's Mental Well-being during the COVID-19 Pandemic. 20th Annual Aresty Undergraduate Research Symposium, 2024.

HONORS/AWARDS

- Graduated with Summa Cum Laude, Rutgers University-New Brunswick, 2024
- Matthew Leydt Society Inductee, Rutgers University-New Brunswick, 2024
- Dean's List, Rutgers University-New Brunswick 2021-2024
- Rutgers' SAS Academic Excellence Award, 2023.

EXPERIENCE

- Aresty Research Assistant, Rutgers University. September 2023- May 2024.
 - Designed and executed independent research projects
 - Conducted comprehensive data analysis using Stata and SPSS to draw meaningful insights.
 - Performed extensive literature reviews, synthesizing information to support academic research.
 - Authored and co-authored academic manuscripts and research reports.
- Editorial Assistant Intern, Rutgers University Press. September 2023 - January 2024.
 - Proofread manuscripts and ensured accuracy and consistency in high-volume editorial workflows.
 - Developed strong organizational skills, coordinating between authors, editors, and production teams.

Education

- KU Leuven - MSc Sociology (Culture and Society Track), September 2025-September 2026 (Expected)
 - Master's Thesis: Intergroup Contact, Perceived Discrimination, and the Acceptance of Discrimination among Adolescents
 - Methods: Regression analysis, Structural Equation Modeling (SEM)
- Rutgers University-New Brunswick, NJ, B.A. January 2024. Major:

Sociology; Minor: Cognitive Science. GPA: 4.0

SKILLS

- Research & Analysis: Qualitative and Quantitative Research, Social Theory, Survey Research Design
 - Regression analysis
 - Machine Learning
 - Multilevel modeling
 - Survey research
 - Mixed-method research design
- Technical Proficiency: Stata, SPSS, Python, R, and Java.
- Languages: Fluent in English and Arabic, Intermediate in Spanish and German